Lowery day clouds run low.

Started for the Mountain "Mt Mansfield" about 2.30 PM. hoping it would clear away. Lyman Churchill Driver. 4 horses and 5 persons after Crossing the bridge just out of the Village He wanted to take his wife and two friends up the Mt. We consented. It was a dreary uncomfortable drive Could see just far enough to behold danger. Esther & Lizzie walked the last ½ mile. arrived at the summit House at Six. just as the rain set in. We were the only visitors and were made comfortable

WEDNESDAY 14 Louis Denois wife —

No View - Cloud capped - We started down the mountain at 9.30 precaution for safety in the descent was taken by shoeing the off hind Wheel. It broke away before we got half way down. and went back for it. Secured it again and rode on. About 2/3 of the way down we came out of the cloud to see shine and it was grand. 2½ hours coming down.

The ride satisfied the crowd.

After dinner at our Hotel Mt Mansfield House Geo Doolittle Propr. we arranged for a private conveyance to Newport. 45 miles -

THURSDAY 15

Lyman Churchill with 4 horses and Mountain Stage we started at 8.30 AM. Our ride all the way was grand a perfect panorama of loveliness - Morristown. Morrisville. Craftsbury - to dinner where we stopped for dinner - and rested a couple of hours -

When we started it looked as though we might get a drenching in our open carriage. Our whole days ride was a delight - we arrived at Newport at Six PM. just as it began to rain.

Stopped at the Memphremagog House. good rooms and well served.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1887
